

The 2016 Lorenzo Patiño LULAC Council of Sacramento Scholarship Recipients

Congratulations to all the scholarship recipients this year from the LULAC National Scholarship Fund (LNSF), established by LNESAC and LULAC.

This year, five talented and college bound students (3 shown here) from the Sacramento area each received a $500 scholarship from our Council.

The recipients were:

Victoria A. Coto who will be attending Sacramento State University;

Emiliano Gomez on his way to University of California Los Angeles;

Mathew Lara who is attending San Jose State University in the Fall;

Magda V. Tellez who will start at University of California San Diego; and Lizeth Torres who has accepted her offer of admission to University of California Merced.
